BICYCLE SAFETY

The best way to avoid getting hurt while cycling is to practice safe bicycling. Here are some simple rules that will help you avoid injury and have fun.

- Yield right of way to all pedestrians. Have a bell on your bike to alert pedestrians that you are there.
- Do your riding in the daytime. Wear light coloured clothing and use reflective tape on both your clothes and the bike if you must ride at night. If you are riding after dark, your bike must have a working headlight and a red rear reflector.
- Ride single file
- Never carry a passenger on your bike
- Ride on the right side with traffic. Never ride on the wrong side of the road against traffic.
- Remember, a bicycle is a vehicle
- Stop, look and listen when you enter any street
- Ride one metre from parked cars. Watch for car doors opening.
- At busy intersections do not attempt to make left turns. Stop and walk your bike across in the pedestrian crosswalks, until you are on the street you wish to travel.
- Stay visible. Prevent putting yourself in a position where cars can cut you off when turning either left or right.
- Observe all traffic sign and regulations
- Use “shoulder checks” and hand signals to let others know what you intend to do.
- Keep your eyes on the road and traffic
- Avoid freeways and busy streets when possible
- Keep your bike under control – no trick riding
- Avoid riding near the extreme edge of the pavement. You will be more visible for the motorists.
- Always keep your bike in good mechanical condition through frequent check-ups.
- Make sure you have the correct bicycle size for you.
- Always wear an approved bicycle helmet.
