Hague Town Office will be closed on:
Monday, September 1st – Labor Day

Recycling:

Recycling will not be picked up on Thurs, Sept. 4th.

They will be preparing for:

Valley Action Abilities
40th Anniversary Celebration
Friday, Sept. 5th from 4 - 8pm!

Everyone is welcome to attend free of charge.
Event includes a pig roast and bouncy castles!!!

Just a reminder! The plastic recycle bags are not recyclable and end up in the landfill – so please only put out bags once they are ½ to ¾ full!

Note: you no longer need to sort your recycling.

For additional recycling options (including plastics), you can set-up your own account with Loraas Disposal 1-306-242-2300 regarding blue bin services and/or our joint RM landfill now has a container available for you to drop off recyclable items. Please contact the RM of Rosthern 306-232-4393 for more details.

Building Permits: Just a reminder, new decks/houses/garages being built require a building permit before construction begins! Please contact the Town Office for further details 306-225-2155.

Community Grant applications sponsored by SK Lotteries, for non-profit groups can be picked up and returned to the Town Office by Nov. 30, 2014.

FREEDOM SESSION

is coming to HAGUE!

We are talking about a 12 step path to freedom through the grace of God. A unique healing journey of 9; 18 or 27 weeks, for all men and women from the community of Hague and surrounding areas. Freedom from all fear, anxiety, lack of self-control, shame; childhood wounds, pornography, unforgiveness, inadequacy, co-dependency, greed, lust, self-denial, substance abuse, marriage and family issues, and all other types of things that bring grief to us.

Starts WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 17th @ 7:00pm, at Hague Mennonite Church (basement) 202 3rd street. Phone 306-225-2211 or 306-716-3340 (a small fee will be charged for material) coffee and refreshments will be provided. Come to the first "test drive session" on (09/17th) to see if this is for you! We will be waiting!!

Sask River Valley Museum – Hague

Culture Days

Saturday Sept. 27th

Come and visit the museum to see artists in action. Art from Hague Schools, wood sculpture, quilting, knitting, musicians, and much more.

See characters from the 1900's at work and at home in the blacksmith's shop, the cobblers, the garage, the church, the school and the farmhouse.

Try our clay oven baked bread.

Displays, etc. 1:00 to 4:00pm. Entry by donation

THEN

5:00pm: Ham roast, salads, baked potato, coffee and dessert. $12 per person. Limited tickets.

Advance tickets can be purchased at the Hague Town Office or from any museum board member.
